Plymouth. Sept. 26,
1875

Dear Mr. Garrison,

69

My cousins, Mr. Edwin Morton's daughters wish me to write and tell you of the death of their father which occurred this morning after a short illness. The funeral will be Monday at one o'clock. We do not expect you to come, but it seems fitting to inform you of the death of one of your old fellow workers, one who loved and revered you.

He brought to Plymouth
news of the "stable meeting"
and the first (I think) Liberator ever taken in Plymouth.
The effect of his news, and paper,
was a meeting at his sister's my aunt Stephens that most enthusiastic of Anti-slavery for the formation of an A.S. Society women" the impression that he was himself at the meeting over the stable.

Your friend,

Abby Morton Diaz.
